Dear Mrs Manley: Your letter rec'd when I returned home Friday night, after spending a couple days in Washington D.C. I will arrange for the Bus June 26th. You did^{nt} mention how many. In regards to the previous arrangement for Rooms which was cancelled I held of an 6 Rooms @ 3.00 ea

And 8 men² in Dormitory @ 1.00 per man. (The Bill will have been 26.00 - See you the Benefit of the doubt and charge you at the rate of all the men being in the Dormitory @ 1.00 per man instead of 1.50 per man, with (2) in room.
The arrangement was for 20. — men. So the Bill is $20.00 You see, being sick and I wasn't able to take any other people in for Friday + Saturday So sorry to hear of you not feeling well. You know you should take it easy for a while. Let me know how many men by the 26th I'll place them some where. I can handle them. Best to you Both Mrs. Elliott.
